

BRECKON
FARMS

HOME OF ELITE PERFORMERS &
WORLDCLASS FAMILIES

Purchased from long term friends, Sandy & Jan Yarnley, Yarnley Farms was renamed Breckon Farms in 2007.

Ken Breckon has been passionate about harness racing almost all of his life. His father George, and grandfather Joe Bowyer were racing men.

Ken found himself actively involved in the Harness Racing industry in 1995, when he and his late brother Peter set off to Karaka to purchase their first racehorse.

The day prior to the sales they read an article in the Herald by Leo George, stating that Megaera would be the filly to buy at Karaka, and the pair decided buying a racehorse would be a good relief from the pressures of work. Megaera, a subsequent 2YO Filly of the Year, would be the first of many champion horses to be associated with the Breckon name.

Karen like her husband, is deeply passionate about harness racing, with the husband and wife duo committing many hours to administration of the industry through Club and kindred body committees and managing an extensive sponsorship portfolio. Countless hours are also spent in the Waikato at the 250 acre property.

Their success with the now retired champion trotter I Can Doosit thrust them into the spotlight as prominent owners and breeders. The million-dollar trotter lives out his days at Breckon Farms and his world class bloodlines live on through the progeny of his sisters.

Ken & Karen's vision for the farm and the industry is second to none. They constantly strive to raise the bar on and off the track, and the commitment to their vision is paying dividends.

Ken and Karen accepted the title of New Zealand Breeder of the Year in 2021, they've bred New Zealand Pacing Horse of the Year, Bettor Twist, Pacing Mare of the Year Elle Mac and Australasian Horse of the Year, King of Swing, and have won over 20 Group 1's with their hugely successful Breckon Farms Syndicates.

Their 50 strong broodmare band includes a dozen Group 1 winners, either bred and raced by Ken & Karen, or purchased upon retirement such as their latest acquisition, NZ Horse of the Year, Millwood Nike.

There is further depth to the ranks with multiple mares who are leaving Group 1 stars such as prolific Group 1 producer Regal Volo, and the newest Group 1 dam Luby Lou.

Investment in quality broodmares and proven performers is reaping rewards in the sales ring with Breckon Farms securing leading vendor status at the NZB Standardbred Sales in 2022, 2023 & 2024.

There was an extra level of excitement around the 2024 NZB Standardbred Sales for the Breckon Farms team as the departure of the draft to Karaka on 16th February 2024 marked the start of a massive infrastructure investment.

Earth was turned the next morning on the new stable complex comprising of two barns and an entertainment centre which will in be use for 2025 Sales preparation.

This will be the jewel in the crown of this showpiece property and signifies Ken and Karen's commitment to elevating the standard in the Harness Racing industry.
